Article 5. Shall the voters appropriate $211,035.00 to the Lamoille County Sheriff's Department to pay for police services?

William Cotten motioned to accept the article. Dave Coolbeth seconded the motion. Corporal Nathan Wolfe of the Lamoille County Sheriff's Department was allowed to speak on this article. A few concerns were brought up.

- Speeding on the North Wolcott Road
- Speeding on Town Hill Road
- Speeding on School Street
- Safety of children at school – it was suggested officers stop by local schools to visit frequently

William Cotten applauded the town for how we have turned around and now support the Sheriff's Department. It is a very important asset for the town. He would like to see it appear in the Selectboard budget rather than "hanging out to dry" in the Warning.

Belinda called the question. Pam Peck seconded the motion. Article 5 passed on a voice vote.

Article 6. Shall the voters appropriate $41,824.00 to the Lamoille County Sheriff's Department to pay for dispatch?

Harvey Reed motioned to accept the article. David Coolbeth seconded the motion.

There was one question asking if E911 was the same as dispatching. Local emergency services are dispatched out of the Sheriff's Department.

William Cotten called the question. David Coolbeth seconded the motion. Article 6 passed on a voice vote.
